Reasons For Refusal

1. Section 42(1) of the Planning and Development Act 2000-2023 states, “On application to it in that behalf, but subject to subsection (8),] a planning authority shall, as regards a particular permission, extend the appropriate period by such additional period not exceeding 5 years as the authority considers requisite to enable the development to which the permission relates to be completed provided that each of the following requirements is complied with:

(a) (i) the authority is satisfied that—

(I) the development to which the permission relates was commenced before the expiration of the appropriate period sought to be extended,

(II) F39I[...]

(III) substantial works were carried out pursuant to the permission during that period, and

(IV) the development will be completed within a reasonable time

The development to which the permission relates has not commenced nor have substantial works been carried out on site. Therefore, the application to extend the appropriate period is not considered to be in accordance with Section 42 (1) of the Planning & Development Act 2000 -2023.
